Abbreviations and special terms used in this regulation are explained in the glossary.

Chapter 2
General Information

2-1. Organization/Unit Recognition

a. Volunteers play an essential role in installation programs that affect Soldier, family, organization, and installation readiness. Recognition for volunteer service not only fosters retention, but also promotes continued volunteer program development.

b. It is critical that units/organizations establish an internal recognition schedule that fits their own needs/requirements. Guidelines may be established in the organization's standard operating procedures or other publications, such as a Family Readiness Group (FRG) handbook. Unit commanders and/or activity directors should work closely with volunteer coordinators, Family Readiness Support Assistants, FRG Leaders, etc. to develop these guidelines. The Army Volunteer Corps Coordinator (AVCC) can provide assistance.

2-2. Volunteer Status

a. Statutory volunteers. Federal statute, 10 U.S.C. § 1588, gives the Department of Defense authority to accept certain voluntary services. When properly registered and working under a written position description, volunteers are covered under the Worker's Compensation Act and the Federal Tort Claims Act. Authorized programs include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Medical, dental, nursing, or other health-care related programs.

(2) Museum or natural resources program.

(3) Programs providing services to members of the Armed Forces and their families to include:

(a) Family support programs.
(b) Child development and youth programs.

(c) Library and education programs.

(d) Religious programs.

(e) Housing referral programs.

(f) Employment assistance programs to assist spouses of such members.

(g) Morale, welfare, and recreation programs, to the extent not covered within 10 U.S.C. § 1588.

(h) Member of a funeral honors detail under 10 U.S.C. § 1491.

b. Private organization volunteers. Private organizations are self-sustaining, non-Federal entities which are operated on Army/Department of Defense (DoD) installations, such as the spouses clubs, the Bragg n’ Barn Thrift Shop, the Fort Bragg Area Community Foundation, Boy/Girl Scouts, etc. Volunteers participating in activities sponsored by these organizations, whether or not it in direct support of an installation activity, are the responsibility of the sponsoring organization, to include all liability.

Chapter 3
Award Process

3-1. Registration and Hour Documentation

a. Statutory volunteers. All statutory volunteers must be registered at the installation level with the AVCC office using the Department of the Army’s web-based tracking system, the Volunteer Management Information System (VMIS). The system is available at www.myarmyonesource.com. In addition to the web-based registration, a Department of Defense (DD) Form 2793, Volunteer Agreement for Appropriated Fund Activities or Non-appropriated Fund Instrumentalities must be completed for each statutory activity (appendix B-1). Youth volunteers age 13 through 17 must also be registered through the Child and Youth Services, Youth Education Supplemental Services office. A parent/guardian must sign the DA Form 5671, Parent Permission Form (appendix B-2). The original copy of the DA 2793 must be kept in the unit/organization files, with a copy sent to the AVCC office for inclusion in the installation master database.

b. Private organization volunteers. Authorized private organization volunteers do not qualify for benefits as outlined under the federal statute, therefore do not complete DD Form 2793. Private organizations, whose primary mission is to provide service to the installation, Soldiers and their Families, may request to participate as an installation volunteer program. Approval will allow organization volunteers to participate in all installation sponsored activities such as awards, training, and quarterly/annual recognition activities. All volunteers associated with the private organization must also be registered within the DA VMIS and will follow the same hour documentation procedures as statutory volunteers.

c. DA VMIS.

(1) The VMIS was developed and implemented worldwide as a tracking mechanism for volunteer hours. Volunteers are required to register and document their hours within this system. A basic “How to Guide” is available on the www.forthbraggmwr.com website and is updated when system changes occur to assist volunteers with this process.

(2) Units, installation activities, and authorized private organizations must identify an organization point of contact (OPOC) to ensure volunteer applications are submitted/approved, and hours are input/certified each month. The individual volunteer is responsible for input of their hours for each volunteer position not later than the 5th of each month. The OPOC is required to certify all hours within their designated unit/organization not later than midnight Pacific Standard Time the 15th of each month. Hours not input/certified by the 15th are not reflected in the installation volunteer report. Missing and/or uncertified hours can affect overall award nomination/qualification.

(3) Volunteer service in off-post activities can be documented by the volunteer in their personal profile. These hours must be documented in the Other Services section of their Volunteer Profile as they are not Army activities. Hours must be documented on the DA Form 4713, Volunteer Daily Time Sheet (appendix B-3), and verified by an official in the organization in which the hours were provided, i.e. school, civic organization, etc. The form is then turned into the IVS office for input into the volunteer’s profile. Hours documented in off-post activities do not count toward awards that recognize direct service to the installation, i.e. Iron Mike Award for volunteer service.

3-2. Award Nominations

a. Several things must be taken into consideration prior to the submission of an award nomination. The Awards Checklist outlines specific requirements and is helpful when completing the submission (appendix C-1). Nominations for all Fort Bragg, United States Army Forces Command (FORSCOM), and DA awards described in this regulation require submission of DA Form 1256, Incentive Award Nomination and Approval (appendix C-2). A type-written justification, in either bullet or paragraph format, must accompany the nomination explaining why the volunteer is deserving of the specific award. Written justifications must provide specific, quantifiable details on the volunteer activity. The justification should not focus on any activity that is not recognized by the Army as official service, i.e. fundraising. Failure to provide these details will be returned without action. The volunteer awards matrix gives an overview of the type of awards available, approval levels, and required process time (appendix D-1).
b. Nominations can be made at any level within the unit/organization; however, the appropriate commander, as specified in this regulation, must sign as the approving official. The packet is then forwarded to the Director, Family and Morale, Welfare, and Recreation, IMSE-BRG-MWA-V (ATTN: Installation Volunteer Services), Fort Bragg, NC 28310, for processing. The award information will be documented in the volunteer profile in VMIS.

c. Active duty military, Department of the Army civilians, and contract employees are not eligible for volunteer awards that in any way reflect similar duties for which the individual is being paid. An award may be presented however, for service which is completely unrelated to paid duties, i.e. an active duty Soldier may be recognized as a youth sports coach. Nominations are reviewed on a case by case basis.

d. The Department of the Army requires all installation volunteers to be registered and document their hours. Award nominations for volunteer service will not be processed if the volunteer is not properly registered. The appropriate certificate, ribbon, and medal will be issued to the parent activity by the AVCC for preparation and presentation to the volunteer. Public service awards for civilians other than volunteers are processed through the Fort Bragg Civilian Personnel Advisory Center, PECH-SCR-N, Building 2-1105, D Stack, Macomb Street, 2715 Reilly Road, Stop A, Fort Bragg, NC 28307-5000.

e. Commanders must verify volunteer registration and documentation of hours in order to present awards that are not typically processed through the IVS office, i.e. Dr. Mary E. Walker Award, which is processed through the Command Sergeants Major channels, and the Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal. Individuals who have performed volunteer services and are deserving of these awards are also required to be registered and document appropriate hours. A courtesy copy of the award should be forwarded to the IVS office in order to document the award in the volunteer’s file.

f. Units/organizations must submit their paperwork in sufficient time to allow for processing of the award and preparing it for presentation. The unit/organization is responsible for having the award(s) framed and should ensure the recipient is recognized at an appropriate function so as not to detract from the significance of the volunteer’s contributions, or from the dignity and prestige of the award. While not mandatory, framing of awards in all categories is encouraged.

g. Recognition of volunteers must start at the unit/organization level. Installation and higher level awards are progressive and based on the level/impact of service. Awards should be explored in this order: unit/organization, Fort Bragg installation awards, FORSCOM awards, and DA awards.

h. Unit/organization awards are processed at their respective levels. Once presented, the OPOC or the volunteer should document the award in VMIS. This allows for more appropriate future recognition when previous awards are documented and viewable by OPOC and/or AVCC.
i. The written justification for any award is critical. Units/organizations must ensure the individual writing the nomination portrays a detailed and accurate view of the contributions made by the volunteer. The decision as to whether a volunteer meets all prerequisites and deserves the award for which he/she has been nominated is a subjective one made by the Installation Volunteer Awards Review Committee based on established award criteria and the written justification. Committee members represent a cross section of the volunteer community leadership. Nominations must describe in detail demonstrated leadership, initiative, manner of performance, level of responsibility, tangible results, and/or the degree in which a volunteer's contributions affect Soldier and Family readiness. Awards are based on merit, and no volunteer is automatically entitled to a service award upon departure from a unit/organization. Awards are also never based on the sponsor's rank and must never be presented based on the sponsor's position.

j. The Installation Awards Review Committee reviews and approves/disapproves the Iron Mike Award for Volunteer Service, as well as major Army command (MACOM) and Department of the Army level awards. This ensures criteria for the award is met, allows for consistency and fairness across the board, and ensures the integrity of the awards are maintained.

Chapter 4
Volunteer Awards and Criteria

4-1. Organization/Unit Awards
Certificate of Achievement/Appreciation. This award is presented to volunteers for contributions to the specific activity. The award is considered an “internal” award with qualifying criteria established by the unit/organization. The approval level can be the organization Director, O-3 or above commander, First Sergeant, etc. as determined by the unit/organization. Certificates or other awards are the responsibility of the unit/organization. Unit commanders may use appropriated funds to pay for printing of award certificates to be used for volunteer recognition.

4-2. Fort Bragg Installation Level Awards

a. Installation Certificate of Appreciation – Making the Difference Award.

(1) Signed by any member of the unit/organization leadership.

(2) Presented for volunteer contributions to an organization/unit that may not necessarily qualify the volunteer for other installation or higher-level awards.

b. Installation Achievement Pin. Presentation of this award began 1 October 2007. Hours documented prior to this date are not counted.

c. Iron Mike Award and Star Pins for volunteer service. The commanding general or designated representative presents the Iron Mike Award and Star Pins for service to the installation at a quarterly reception. Nominations for the award are limited to six per brigade-size unit or organization per quarter. Individuals cannot be awarded more than two Iron Mike awards within a calendar year. Only volunteer hours documented at Fort Bragg after 1 October 2000 are counted toward Iron Mike criteria. Accrual of hours is on-going and do not restart at the beginning of a new year. Registered youth volunteers are also eligible for this award as long as established criteria are met. The reception months and cutoff dates for nominations are as follows:

VOLUNTEER AWARDS CHECKLIST
(Updated 2/24/09)

Please use the following checklist when planning awards for your volunteers. Refer to FB Regulation 608-1 for award information, criteria, and appropriate submission timelines.

1. Verify registration of the volunteer. Volunteer must have a current registration within the DA VMIS and have a DD 2793 on file with the IVS office.

2. Verify hours documented for the volunteer. If hours are not documented, hours must be input by the OPOC (broken down by month for the designated time period) prior to submitting the award packet.

3. Identify the award most suited for the volunteer. Use the Volunteer Award Matrix in the back of FB 608-1 for guidance. DA Public Service awards are progressive awards and should be given in the order designated unless extraordinary service is reflected in the justification. AWARDS ARE NEVER PRESENTED BASED ON THE RANK/POSITION OF THE SOLDIER AND SHOULD NOT BE PRESENTED SOLELY AS A FAREWELL TOKEN.

4. Prepare DA 1256, Incentive Award Nomination and Approval and have appropriate approval authority sign. This form is not used for the Iron Mike Award for Volunteer Service.

5. Prepare a written justification on why the volunteer is being nominated for the award. PLEASE PROVIDE SPECIFIC DETAILS as to the nature of the service to include dates, etc. Samples available in IVS office.

6. Prepare the draft citation, provide the name/signature block of the Individual signing the award, and presentation date.

7. Provide original documentation outlined in #4, #5, #6 above to ACS, Installation Volunteer Services Office, Soldier Support Center, Bldg. 4-2843, Normandy Drive with ample time to process and obtain appropriate signature on certificate. Please refer to the Volunteer Awards Matrix in FB 608-1 for timelines.

For award selection guidance or more information, contact the Installation Volunteer Services Office at 396-8160.
