

FRG Leadership Checklist

 I embrace those goals and convey them to other volunteers. I frequently confer with the commander about FRG plans and activities. I frequently confer with all chairpersons about FRG plans and activities. I set the example by welcoming diversity among our FRG members. I actively seek inclusion of all members in FRG meetings and activities. I readily make some decisions on my own when appropriate. I share important decisions with the committee leaders and the commander. I seek input on group activities and concerns from the membership. I have a positive attitude of friendliness, kindness, and service. I am an assertive but humble and kind leader. I treat everyone with respect and regard; I never criticize but I mentor. I try not to dominate meetings and strive to get others involved. I try to keep meetings focused, fun, and reasonably brief. I frequently and publicly thank people for their help. I attend all steering committee meetings or ensure that an alternate does. I seek to resolve conflict peaceably and promote harmony among the FRG members. 	Yes	No N
