ACS Financial Readiness Program

What is FRP?

Our Financial Readiness Program (FRP) is both proactive and reactive in nature. We offer proactive educational classes for our military community, keeping Families financially aware and prepared. The FRP is available by appointment for "one-on-one" financial counseling. Consider seeing one of our counselors at the various financial touch points throughout your career (promotion, marriage, first child, etc.).

Support and Counseling Services

- Confidential financial consultation for individuals & Families
- Referral to military/community resources
- Support for Family members during deployment
- Credit management and budgeting
- Security clearance issues
- Debt liquidation plans
- Budgeting and spending plans
- Credit report review
