Solder Family Readiness Group (SFRG) trainings below based on Readiness Essentials for Army Leaders (R.E.A.L)

SFRG Coordinator Training:

This training is designed to assist the coordinator in how to set-up, maintain and handle the challenges with in the SFRG arena and in accordance with the FORSCOM OPORD Oct 2020. Open to all wanting to learn more about the structure of the SFRG and requirements of the coordinator's role in assisting the unit Commander (SFRG Leader).

SFRG Fund Custodian Training:

This training is required for all current and incoming SFRG Fund Custodians. The training provides an overview of the Army regulations governing management of SFRG informal funds and fundraising. Suggested training for SFRG Leaders, Commanders and SFRG Fundraising Coordinators.

SFRG Contact Training:

This training provides Key Contacts with an overview of their role and responsibilities as well as how to handle crisis phone calls. Required training for all SFRG Key Contacts. Suggested training for all SFRG Coordinators. Open to anyone wanting to learn more about the SFRG Communications Structure. The course includes tips and techniques for executing the role as well as practical exercises and scenarios.

Command Family Readiness Representative Training (CFRR):

This training includes topics on understanding your role, resources for success, SFRG Do's and Don'ts, and working with SFRG Volunteers. This training is designed IAW the FORSCOM OPORD Oct 2020.

Training provided by Operation Resources for Education About Deployment and You (READY)

Care Team Training:

By providing immediate support after official notification, the Care Team fills the gap between the notification team and the arrival of Family support. This training is critical prior to establishing a Care Team.

Trainings below offered by request only, based on Readiness Essentials for Army Leaders (R.E.A.L)

FRG Advisor Training (offered by request only):

Advisor training is designed to be a foundational course on Soldier and Family Readiness Groups. The training covers the Department of Defense definition of Soldier and Family Readiness and how the Army SFRG can assist commanders in meeting their mission of executing a unit Soldier and Family Readiness Program. The training provides basic information on the different roles within the SFRG from the command team to the various volunteer positions.

SFRG Commander's Training (offered by request only):

Commander's training targets company commanders, but is also informative for brigade and battalion commanders and command sergeants major. This two-hour training delineates the roles and responsibilities of the command team regarding how to leverage the SFRG to execute the Soldier and Family Readiness mission. Topics include: Family Readiness, Mission Essential Tasks for SFRGs, SFRG Elements and Operations, Communications, Volunteer Management, SFRG Funding, and Resources. This training is designed IAW the FORSCOM OPORD Oct 2020.
